

Science Support Officer

The Commission for the Conservation of Antarctic Marine Living Resources (CCAMLR) in Hobart is seeking a suitably qualified and experienced individual to fill the position of Science Support Officer. The appointee will, among other duties consistent with the priorities of CCAMLR's Scientific Committee, support the operation of CCAMLR's ecosystem monitoring, marine debris and fisheries observation programmes.

The successful applicant will have appropriate tertiary qualifications, experience in data collection and analysis, preferably related to marine ecosystems and/or fisheries. The post is initially offered on a three year contract with a commencing salary of $56,057 generous superannuation and other benefits.

Commencement date: April/May 2012

A full position profile and selection criteria is available on the CCAMLR Website – <http://www.ccamlr.org/jobs>. All applications, addressed to the Executive Secretary, should be submitted electronically to recruitment@ccamlr.org.

The closing date for applications is: March 16 2012
