The Harbour Bus

travel by double-decker bus through the overseas harbours, simultaneously enjoying the city tour along the "ocean mile" of Bremerhaven.

The city by the sea

has a maritime side that has so far remained hidden even from the majority of Bremerhaven's population. But that's history now.

The HafenBus

travels through the overseas harbours, via the impressive Container Terminal and the Automobile Terminal with the „high and heavy area“ in the northern part of the city. In the past, due to security reasons no access to this industrial-commercial terrain was possible for interested visitors. But this problem has been solved. One of the most fascinating sections of the harbour can now be admired at close range by our guests.
