For a part year of continuous service an employee will be paid a pro-rata part of one month's gross pay proportionate to that partial year of service. If the appointment of a staff member is terminated for reasons of gross dereliction of duties or serious misconduct, they will not receive a separation from service payment.

1.10.3 In the event of a staff member resigning without giving the required notice, the Executive Secretary reserves the right to decide whether repatriation expenses, separation from service or any other allowance, shall be paid.

1.10.4 Appointment of staff members may be terminated upon prior written notice, in advance by at least the notice periods described in Clause 1.10.1, by the Executive Secretary when they deem this to be for the benefit of the Commission due to restructuring of the Secretariat or if they consider that the staff member does not give satisfactory service, fails to comply with the duties and obligations set out in these Staff Regulations, or is incapacitated for service. In the case of termination of employment for reasons of incapacity one month's notice shall apply. In the case of termination for gross dereliction of duties or serious misconduct, dismissal shall be immediate.

1.12.6 Continuity of service

- (a) For the purposes of this subclause, service shall be deemed to be continuous notwithstanding:
 - (i) any interruption or determination of the employment by the Executive Secretary if such interruption or determination has been made merely with the intention of avoiding obligations in respect of leave of absence
 - (ii) any absence from work on account of personal sickness or accident and in calculating the period of twelve months’ continuous service, absence on account of personal sickness or accident to the extent of 91 days in any 12 months shall be deemed to be part of the period of continuous service

1.13.10 Employee must give notice

- (a) The staff member must, as soon as practicable prior to the commencement of work, inform the Executive Secretary of their inability to attend work and, as far as practicable, state the nature of the injury, illness or emergency and the estimated duration of the absence.
