ANTARCTIC MARINE LIVING RESOURCES
(Paper submitted by Australia)

1. Possible range of options from which a living marine resource management regime might be chosen:-

- i. A comprehensive convention covering the living marine resources of Antarctica based on their distribution and not the Treaty area.
- ii. A specific fisheries convention based on resource distribution.
- iii. A convention on living marine resources limited to south of 60°S.
- iv. A convention on fisheries limited to south of 60°S.
- v. A Southern Ocean Fisheries Convention similar to the Sealing Convention.
- vi. A new set of Agreed Measures dealing with living marine resources to be attached to the Antarctic Treaty.
- vii. To include fisheries within the present Agreed Measures.
